

MAYFIELD FUND

Emily Melton

Partner

Emily Melton is an experienced investor having worked in venture capital for nearly a decade. Emily's primary areas of interest include technology-enabled services and consumer-oriented technologies. Emily joined Mayfield from Draper Fisher Jurvetson, where she was actively involved in the firm's consumer investment portfolio. Emily previously served on the boards of MyShape, NearbyNow, RedFin and ShareThis. She was also responsible for DFJ's investments in Meebo, Kudo, RichRelevance and Flux (acquired by MTVNetworks).

Emily holds a BA with honors and distinction in Political Philosophy and an MBA, both from Stanford University.

Contact information:

emelton@mayfield.com
(650) 854-5560