

Sri Pangulur
Partner
Mayfield

Sri Pangulur is a proven enterprise infrastructure, developer tools, and SaaS investor and operating leader. Sri is the firm's first dedicated partner for Select/Spring Funds who will focus on enterprise infrastructure, AI, developer tools, and SaaS. Select/Spring companies will be primarily at the Series B stage and the funds represent approximately $800 million of capital.

Prior to Mayfield, Sri led the enterprise software investing practice at Tribe Capital and was an active angel investor before that. Some entrepreneurs he has partnered with include the teams from Apollo.io, LinearB, Docker, JupiterOne, Orum, Instabase, MindsDB, Abnormal Security, Hasura, HYCU, Nylas, Airbyte, Hightouch, and Oort.

During his operating career, Sri held sales and business development leadership roles across multiple enterprise infrastructure and SaaS companies. Prior to his operating tenure, Sri was a member of the investment banking division of Barclays Capital.

Sri received his B.S. in Finance from Case Western Reserve University, with minors in Economics and Accounting. He graduated Summa Cum Laude.
